--------------------	----------------------	-------------------------------	----------------------

I understand that:

- This entitles the named Beneficiary to claim up to £5000 of shares or deposits, including any insurance entitlement, that may be mine at the time of my death.
- The credit union has the right to use any of my funds to pay any balances owed to it prior to releasing the funds to the Beneficiary.
- This nomination will remain in place until I choose to revoke it.
- Any subsequent marriage I enter will effectively revoke this nomination unless I state otherwise.
- This nomination will take effect irrespective of any other arrangements I have made in relation to my estate after my death.
- Any additional funds I hold will be treated as part of my estate and will not be part of this nomination.
